To Whom It May Concern,

Mr. Graeme Thornber, born on 19th July 1978 was employed as a Web Developer at "Scopevisio AG" in Bonn, Germany from 15th November 2011 until 31st May 2013.

Scopevisio is a high-tech software company that provides online solutions and cloud services for small to medium-sized businesses. The software that Scopevisio offers is accounting-based and includes functionality for Customer Relationship Management (CRM), quotes processing and invoice generation.

The main tasks of Mr. Thornber involved working independently in the following areas:

- Website Development utilising Drupal and Wordpress
- Front-end Development with HTML5, CSS3 and jQuery
- Integration of Web Services using SOAP and JSON
- Implementation of table-based HTML Email Templates
- Transformation of HTML content from Drupal to PDF with PHP and FPDF via XML

Furthermore Mr. Thornber went beyond his required duties to assist other departments in the translation of official documents from German to English.

Mr. Thornber adapted to his new tasks quickly and enthusiastically as well as exceeding the requirements of this demanding position. Even under acute pressure, he was always able to maintain a calm and confident composure.

Mr. Thornber possesses a deep, extensive technical knowledge that enables him to analyze the task and provide optimal solutions for a given problem, regardless of the complexity. Additionally he impressed us with his extraordinary abilities to competently absorb new technologies, allowing him to not only complete all tasks in a minimal time but also at a very high level.

Mr. Thornber always fulfilled his responsibilities to our fullest satisfaction.

He was much valued as well as popular with colleagues and superiors due to his professional competence, team skills and exemplary personal behaviour.

Mr. Thornber leaves us on his own accord to return to New Zealand. Although we regret his departure, we are thankful for his precious collaboration with our company and wish him all the best and much success for his further career and personal life.

Bonn, 31st May 2013

Peter Schöll
